How to Become a Paul Harris Fellow

Legacy Option

A Paul Harris Fellow can be earned by contributing $1000 to The Rotary Foundation to AF-SHARE or PolioPlus Fund. This can be a one-time gift, periodic gifts, or regular automatic gifts through Rotary Direct.

Matching Points

A Paul Harris Fellow can also be given through the Club's earned points. Points are earned on a 1-1 basis for every dollar contributed to the Foundation ($1000 donation earns $1000 points.) Some Rotarians will honor their spouse, children, grandchildren, friends, etc. with a Paul Harris Fellow, typically by using their points.

Service Option

The Rotary Club of Tallahassee has a special program for new members. New members can earn up to 900 points (donated by other Club Members for this use) by engaging in the club and learning more about Rotary. Here's how the program works:

Donate $100 to the Rotary Foundation, then choose activities from the list below (or from the comprehensive list of Club activities provided in your New Member Packet) and earn 900 points to achieve a Paul Harris Fellow. When you have completed your activities please present this form to Donald Parks, Foundation Chair, for processing.

- 100 points - Contribute $100 to The Rotary Foundation (required) with the pledge of continuing to contribute a minimum a $100 a year.
- 100 points – attend new member orientation, log on to DaCdb and update online profile (including providing head shot for the Directory), log on to MyRotary and update profile, learn to view Donor History Report, and learn how to make an online contribution to The Rotary Foundation.
